which all of the young people of Lake Charles had been invited.

Mr. Clyde Coulter, International Field Secretary of the Leper Work, told of the great work among the outcasts of the world, speaking also of the wonderful work at Carrville, La., and telling of the need of a Protestant Chapel. The Synodical took six shares in this building.

A demonstration of an Auxiliary inspirational meeting was held and thoroughly enjoyed. During all the sessions, morning and afternoon and evening, Mrs. A. B. Dinwiddie was most generous with her glorious voice, preaching a gospel in song. This meeting of the Synodical was the most successful ever held, only two officers being absent, there were a number of delegates from the Presbyterian also in attendance. The Woman's Auxiliary of Lake Charles Church proved a charming hostess, planning for the comfort and happiness of the guests. A delightful banquet was held at the Church, with a musical program. Automobiles were provided one afternoon and the women were taken to Sulphur to inspect the noted mines there.

The next meeting will be held in the Prytania Street Presbyterian Church in New Orleans.

Mrs. J. W. Steen, of Shreveport, was in churches, Sunday schools and societies for 1922. It has been pronounced by competent judges to be the very best of the long series of exercises prepared by the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief. It is an appeal for life and will go far toward changing the unwise and unprofitable methods used at the Christmas season.

Copies of the exercise with sufficient numbers of "The Supplement" will be provided free to all the churches and Sunday schools of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. They will be sold to others at the rate of $3.00 per hundred.

WEST HANOVER GROUP INSTITUTE.

At the meeting of West Hanover Presbyterian Auxiliary last May plans were made to have three group institutes. The one for Albemarle and Nelson Counties was held at Lebanon Church, and was attended by a large delegation from four Auxiliaries.

The devotional was led by the pastor, Rev. T. W. DeVane. Mrs. T. E. Ogilvie gave a full and most interesting report of the meeting of Virginia Synodical Auxiliary. Mrs. T. H. Daniel, with the help of six other ladies from Charlottesville, gave a most impressive demonstration of a model mission study class. Mrs. C. B. Summerville read an interesting paper telling of some of the attractions of the Massanetta Conferences. Mrs. W. M. Junkin gave a heart-stirring address on our mission work in China. Mrs. D. K. Walthall explained the standard of excellence in such a helpful way as to stir each heart with an earnest desire to do her part to make hers a Gold Circle Auxiliary. Mrs. Hugh Simms gave a suggestive and practical talk on what circles can do. Mrs. T. C. Rosenkrans told of some helpful things circles are doing for Congregational and Presbyterian Home Missions.

Six Presbyterian officers were present and each gave some message about the needs of her work.

A display of maps, charts, posters and literature was presented.

Each person brought sandwiches, which, with cake and coffee, was served by the hostess Auxiliary.

RICHWOOD, KY.

Recently it was our pleasure and privilege to have Mrs. Thornwell Tadlock, our Presbyterian President, hold a Conference at this church, Boone County, Ky. Delegates attended from Augusta, Covington, Crescent Springs, Union, Richwood. The entire community enjoyed it. It was helpful and inspiring. I think each one returned to their work with a determined effort to do greater things for our Master's cause, and wishing to have Mrs. Tadlock with us again.

FIRST CHURCH, MERIDIAN, MISS.

The Woman's Auxiliary of this Church held an all-day session, when the day was given entirely to the study of Dr. Homer McMillan's book, "Unfinished Tasks." Mrs. J. R. Waller was the chairman for the day and to her real interest is due the success of this occasion.

The several chapters of the book were given and discussed by as many members as follows:

Home Mission Objective, Mrs. Henry Woods; Laying Foundations, Mrs. W. O. W. Paine; Paying a Debt, Mesdames Little and Weddell; Strength of the Hills, Auxiliary; Our Future Citizens, Mesdames Fred Hughes, J. B. Gressett, Sr., and Mrs. R. L. Turner; Mexican Neighbors, Auxiliary; Demands of Task, Mrs. C. W. Kimball.

At the noon hour, a tempting lunch was served, in the new dining room, by the following committee: Mrs. W. G. Wetmore, Mrs. J. B. Gressett, Sr., Misses Mattie Neville and Florence Jenkins.

A genial spirit prevailed, and all considered it a great privilege to be present.
